PROFILE

Senior UI/UX and product designer with 5+ years of experience creating responsive websites and web applications, combining product thinking with hands-on front-end implementation. Strong in UX flows, prototyping, design systems and developer collaboration. Expanding into AI product design through hands-on portfolio projects focused on conversational UX, AI states, agentic workflows and trustworthy human-AI interaction.

EXPERIENCE

Senior UI/UX Designer

Appic Softwares Development LLP | Jun 2021 - Present

- Own UI/UX design across responsive websites, enterprise web applications and digital product experiences for multiple client domains.
- Translate business and user requirements into information architecture, user flows, wireframes, interactive prototypes and production-ready UI.
- Create scalable design patterns and reusable components in Figma while maintaining responsive behavior, accessibility and visual consistency.
- Build and refine interfaces with HTML5, CSS3, JavaScript, React.js, Angular, Next.js, Bootstrap and Material UI, helping bridge design and development.
- Collaborate directly with clients, developers and project managers to review requirements, resolve UX trade-offs and improve implementation quality.
- Design key states beyond the happy path, including validation, empty, loading, error and responsive states to support complete product experiences.

SELECTED AI PRODUCT PROJECTS

AI Research Copilot

Portfolio project — Designing a research workspace that helps users ask questions, organize findings and work with AI-generated responses. Includes source/citation UX, prompt and follow-up flows, loading/empty/error states, Figma screens and an interactive prototype.

AI SaaS / Business Assistant

Portfolio project — Designing an AI assistant for common business workflows, with dashboard and conversational interactions, task-oriented prompts, review/confirmation states, failure recovery and human-control patterns. Figma design and prototype planned with a React/Next.js implementation.

Agentic Workflow & Productivity Tool

Portfolio project — Designing a workflow product where users configure AI-assisted multi-step tasks, review agent progress and intervene when needed. Covers workflow setup, status visibility, approvals, retries, errors and safe human handoff through Figma UX and interactive prototyping.
